1. What is this product?

Type

This product is a bearer debt security issued under German law.

Objectives

The objective of this product is to provide you with a specified entitlement according to predefined conditions.

The product refers to the COFRAMAX Index. You participate in the performance of the Index via the product. The redemption of the product depends on the performance of the Index. Index components can be stocks, currencies, bonds, ETF, mutual funds and investment solutions. The index is calculated by LIXX GmbH as index administrator. The composition of the index as well as the weighting of the index components is based on advice received from Kepler Cheuvreux (Suisse) S.A.

The product has no fixed term. You can exercise the product on any Exercise Date if you submit an exercise notice by 12 noon of the respective Exercise Date at the latest. In addition, the Issuer has the right to terminate the product on each exercise date with five business days' notice. After exercise or termination, you will receive the Redemption Amount on the relevant Redemption Date. The Redemption Amount will be equal to an amount in Euros (EUR) (A) equal to the Index Level on the Valuation Date, (B) less the Issuer's unpaid administrative costs and accrued interest, subject to the applicable limited recourse. The Redemption Amount may also be zero.

The product does not carry interest. You are not entitled to any claims from the components of the Index.

When issuing the Certificates, the Issuer acts solely for its Compartment 560. All claims and receivables from and under the Certificates are limited to the Compartment Assets. The Compartment Assets comprise mainly of hedging transactions entered into by the Issuer utilizing the proceeds from the issue of the Certificates (e.g. hedging agreements with banks or the direct acquisition of index components). The Issuer enters into such hedging transactions in order to be able to make payments under the Certificates. If the Compartment Assets are not sufficient to fully satisfy the claims of all investors under the Certificates, the Issuer will not be liable to you for any shortfall and you may not assert any further claims against the Issuer. In particular, you have no recourse/claim to any other assets of Opus - Chartered Issuances S.A., including the assets of other Compartments or the general assets of Opus - Chartered Issuances S.A., which are not allocated to a Compartment.

You will suffer a loss if the amount repayable is less than the purchase price of the product.

In the event of an extraordinary termination, the redemption amount may, under certain circumstances, be considerably lower than the purchase price. Even a total loss is possible. In addition, you bear the risk that notice is given at an unfavourable time for you and that you can only reinvest the repayment amount under worse conditions.

Intended retail investor

The product is intended for retail investors who pursue the objective of general asset formation/asset optimisation and have a long-term investment horizon. This product is a product for clients with advanced knowledge and/or experience with financial products. The investor may bear losses up to total loss of the capital invested and does not require capital protection.

2. What are the risks and what could I get in return?

Risk indicator

The summary risk indicator is a guide to the level of risk of this product compared to other products. It shows how likely it is that the product will lose money because of movements in the markets or because the Issuer is not able to pay you.

We have classified this product as 6 out of 7, which is the second highest risk class.

The risk of potential losses from future performance is considered high. If market conditions are unfavourable, it is very likely that the Issuer's ability to pay you out will be affected.

Your entitlement is limited to the assets of Compartment 560. You have no further claims against Opus - Chartered Issuances S.A., in particular no recourse to other assets of Opus - Chartered Issuances S.A.

This product does not include any protection from future market performance so you could lose some or all of your investment. If the Issuer is not able to pay you what is owed, you could lose your entire investment.

The scenarios shown illustrate how your investment could perform. You can compare them with scenarios of other products. The scenarios presented are an estimate of future performance based on evidence from the past on how the value of this investment varies, and are not an exact indicator. What you get will vary depending on how the market performs and how long you keep the investment/product. The stress scenario shows what you might get back in extreme market circumstances, and it does not take into account the situation where the Issuer is not able to pay you.

The figures shown include all the costs of the product itself but may not include all the costs that you pay to your advisor or distributor. The figures do not consider your personal tax situation, which may also affect how much you get back.

3. What happens if Opus – Chartered Issuances S.A. (acting in respect of its Compartment 560) is unable to pay out?

You are exposed to the risk that the Issuer may not be able to fulfil its obligations under the product, for example in the event of insolvency (inability to pay/over-indebtedness) of the Issuer (Opus - Chartered Issuances S.A., acting in respect of the Compartment 560) and the parties with whom it enters into hedging transactions. A total loss of the invested capital is possible. The product is not subject to deposit insurance.
